

Dr. Kristina Saarepera

DDS, MSc (Oral Implantology)
Dentist — Oral Surgery, Implantology,
Complex Prosthodontics, and Periodontal
Therapy

Professional Summary

Experienced dentist with core clinical focus in oral surgery and implantology, including guided surgery; complex prosthodontic rehabilitation; and periodontal disease management. Graduated from the Karolinska Institute's Dental School (Stockholm) in 1997 and completed the Master of Oral Implantology (MSc) program at Goethe University, Frankfurt am Main, in 2016. Founder of K3 Dental Clinic in Tallinn, Estonia, and current Chairman of MINEC Estonia.

Core Clinical Expertise

- Implantology (including guided surgery)
- Oral surgery
- Complex prosthodontics
- Periodontal therapy

Education & Credentials

- Goethe University, Frankfurt am Main, Germany: Master of Oral Implantology (MSc), 2016
- Goethe University, Frankfurt am Main, Germany: Curriculum in Oral Implantology, 2011
- Karolinska Institute, Stockholm, Sweden — Dental Department: 1994–1997
- University of Tartu, Estonia: Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS), 1991–1997

Leadership & Professional Activities

- Chairman, MINEC Estonia
- Founder, K3 Dental Clinic, Tallinn, Estonia

Professional Interests

- Immediate and delayed implant placement protocols
- Interdisciplinary treatment planning for complex prosthodontic cases
- Prevention and treatment of periodontal disease

References available upon request.